AUTO SAFETY HOUSE HAS CHOSEN HORIZON TECHNOLOGIES, MILLENNIUM PLUS GPS VEHICLE AND ASSET TRACKING PRODUCTS

PHOENIX, AZ, April 2nd, 2008 – Auto Safety House (ASH) announced today that they have become one of the exclusive distributors for the Millennium Plus vehicle and asset tracking products throughout Arizona and Nevada. “We’re excited about our new distributor partnership with Horizon Technologies, because their state of the art Millennium Plus GPS product line is far superior than many of the other comparable GPS products in the marketplace today” commented, Rudy Garcia, Vice President of Sales and Marketing – Auto Safety House. “This new GPS product enables us to continue to fulfill our primary mission with our customers, which is to be their Total Fleet Solution provider of choice. Unlike most other GPS device manufacturers and distributors, Horizon Technologies also owns the hardware technology and software allowing for much more capability and customization. Add to that the fact that their corporate office, sales and technical support is based out of Tempe, Arizona really makes this a win-win formula for us and our fleet customers.”

Horizon Technologies is based out of Arizona with their corporate office located in Tempe. They were one of the first companies to design a digital GPS device and have been designing GPS products since 2001. Horizon Technologies, LLC is an Arizona corporation responsible for the marketing and development of the Millennium Plus product line. Now in its third generation, Millennium Plus is currently one of the most advanced asset tracking and AVL solutions on the market today.

Auto Safety House is a distributor of new and used buses, truck equipment, bus, truck and trailer parts, and also performs emergency vehicle modifications, and offers a diverse mix of heavy duty mechanical service in facilities located throughout the Southwestern United States.
